

Transnational Migrants' Strike

Demonstration

Friday, March 1st, 2013, 5 pm

Franziskanerplatz-Museumsstraße, Innsbruck

The 1st of March has become a symbolic day for transnational migrants' strike. This day unites all migrants, refugees and people without documents and gives a common voice to speak up against racism, discrimination and exclusion on all levels of social life.

The transnational protests on the 1st of March were initiated in the USA in 2006 and have encouraged migrants in other countries to organise and take action on that day. Regarding to the ongoing refugee struggles in Vienna, Berlin, Amsterdam and many other cities in Europe we primarily demand a free labor market access for all people.

In addition to the demonstration there are further actions in Innsbruck on 1st of March:

- 9 am - 11 am: Strike breakfast at Women from all countries, Muellerstrasse 7 (women only)
- 1 pm - 2 pm: Strike meal at ATİGF, Schoepfstrasse 9
- from 1 pm on: Strike crafting at ATİGF, Schoepfstrasse 9
- 2.30 pm - 4.30 pm: Strike café at FLUCHTpunkt, Jahnstrasse 17
- 5 pm: Theatre play "Revolution for freedom of movement", Franziskanerplatz (in case of rain/snow after the presentation at Café DeCentral)
- 8 pm: Presentation about Frontex, boats4people and the refugee struggles in Vienna at Café DeCentral, Haller Strasse 1

For the global right of freedom of movement and equal rights!
